Location

The Undaru Sri Vishnumurthy Temple is an ancient and spiritually revered shrine situated in Undaru within the Innanje village of Kapu (Kaup) Taluk, Udupi District, Karnataka, India.

How to Get There

- By Road: The temple is well-connected by road. It is located approximately 7 km from Kapu town and around 15 km from Udupi city center. Devotes can easily take local buses, auto-rickshaws, or taxis from Kapu or Udupi to reach Innanje.
- By Rail: The nearest major railway station is the Udupi Railway Station (UD), located about 15 km away.
- By Air: The closest airport is Mangalore International Airport (IXE), which is approximately 53 km south of the temple.

Speciality of this Temple

The temple serves as a peaceful, hidden spiritual oasis away from urban crowds, maintaining a highly traditional and serene atmosphere. It is historically and administratively linked directly to the prestigious Sri Sode Vadiraja Mutt, one of the Ashta Mutts of Udupi. A dedicated branch of the Sode Mutt stands right alongside the temple structure.

History and Legends

The temple boasts a rich history dating back approximately 700 years. According to local regional lore and records from the Sode Mutt, the great philosopher Sri Madhvacharya and later the legendary saint Sri Vadiraja Teertha both visited this sacred spot and offered worship to the presiding deity, Lord Vishnumurthy.

The unique name of the location, Undaru (historically referred to as Unda-uru), is associated with a distinctive regional miracle. It is said that in ancient times, a highly pious, devoted young bachelor prepared a Naivedya (sacred food offering) and presented it with such pure devotion that the Lord manifested visibly to consume the entire offering completely (Unda translating to "eaten" in Tulu/Kannada). Because the Lord accepted and consumed the food directly at this village, it became celebrated as Undaru.

Architecture

The temple exhibits the classic Coastal Karnataka (Tulu Nadu) style of temple architecture. Built with robust local laterite stone walls and featuring heavy, intricately carved woodwork, it is designed with pitched, sloping roofs suited to the heavy monsoon rains of the coastal belt. The temple structure includes a traditional Garbhagriha (sanctum sanctorum), a surrounding Pradakshina Patha (circumambulatory corridor), and an outer courtyard. In recent times, the temple complex has undergone structured restoration work under the direction of the Sode Mutt, which included the ceremonial installation of a high-quality wooden log for a new Dwaja Sthambha (flag post).

Main Deity and Subdeities

- Main Deity: The presiding deity is Lord Vishnumurthy, a benevolent and powerful form of Lord Vishnu, depicted holding His traditional attributes.
- Subdeities: True to the sacred practices of the region, the complex includes shrines for Nagadevaru (the Serpent Deity) and Bhutarajaru (the guardian spirit entity closely associated with the Sode Mutt lineage), both of whom receive regular ritualistic worship.

Daily Rituals, Poojas, and Special Poojas (with Charges)

The temple observes strict, traditional Tulu Brahmin worship rituals overseen by priests appointed through the Sode Mutt lineage.

- Daily Rituals: The temple opens early in the morning (around 6:00 AM) for morning prayers, followed by afternoon Maha Pooja and evening Ranga Pooja and Alankara.
- Special Sevas: Major sevas include Tulabhara, Sahasranama Archana, Satyanarayana Pooja, Naga Pratishta / Ashlesha Bali (at the Naga shrine), and special flower decorations (Alankara Pooja).
- Charges: Standard daily Archana and basic offerings start at minimal nominal fees (₹20 to ₹100). Larger offerings, community meals (Annasantarpane), or special festive Ranga Poojas vary from hundreds to thousands of rupees. Devotees are advised to contact the temple office directly or consult the official Seva counter at the premises for the exact, updated tariff card.

Festivals Celebrated

- Annual Car Festival (Rathotsava): The most grandly celebrated event of the year, conducted with immense pomp and religious fervor. It attracts thousands of devotees from neighboring villages.
- Vadiraja Teertha Aradhana: Special prayers and large-scale cultural programs are organized to mark the Aradhana of Sri Vadirajaru.

- Sankramana: Special adoration rituals and elaborate poojas are meticulously performed on the Sankramana day of every single month.
- Other Festivals: Major Vaishnava festivals such as Sri Krishna Janmashtami, Navaratri, and Deepavali are celebrated with traditional decorations and special food distribution.

Facilities Available for Devotees

- Annadanam: On festival days, special occasions, and annual celebrations, large-scale public lunch (Maha Annasantarpane) is served to all visiting devotees.
- Accommodation: Being a smaller, traditional village temple, extensive in-house boarding is limited. However, basic room accommodations for pilgrims and specific ritual performers are traditionally managed through the adjoining Sode Mutt branches (such as the Trivikrama Dhama facilities managed by the main Mutt infrastructure). For long stays, most pilgrims commute from nearby Kapu or Udupi town.

Do's and Don'ts

- Dress Code: Devotees must adhere to traditional Indian attire. Men are typically expected to remove their shirts and vests before entering the inner sanctum, wearing a traditional dhoti or veshti. Women are requested to wear sarees or traditional salwar suits.
- Conduct: Maintain absolute silence inside the inner courtyard.
- Photography: Photography and video recording inside the Garbhagriha (inner sanctum) are strictly prohibited to maintain sanctity.

Nearby Temples

- Kunjarugiri Durga Devi Temple: A famous hilltop temple dedicated to Goddess Durga, highly revered and historically associated with Sri Madhvacharya, located just a short distance away.
- Pajaka Kshetra: The holy birthplace of Sri Madhvacharya, situated very close to Kunjarugiri.
- Udupi Sri Krishna Mutt: The world-famous spiritual center established by Sri Madhvacharya, located 15 km away in Udupi town.
- Kapu Sri Hosa Marigudi & Pazhaya Marigudi Temples: Highly popular shrines dedicated to Goddess Mariamma in nearby Kapu town.

Nearby Hotels and Restaurants

- Local Eateries: Park 'N' Eat Food Junction and Taj Cafe operate within a 2 to 2.5 km radius from Innanje for quick traditional snacks and refreshments.
- Lodging & Fine Dining: Since Kapu and Udupi are extremely close, standard lodging, luxury resorts, and comprehensive vegetarian dining halls (like Pai Tiffins and New Shanthi Sagar) are widely available along the national highway near Kapu beach and within Udupi city center.

Nearby Tourist Spots

- Kapu Beach and Lighthouse: Located about 7–8 km away, featuring a majestic operational century-old lighthouse built on a massive rock boulders structure, offering beautiful panoramic ocean views.
- Mattu Beach: A serene, peaceful beach famous for its bioluminescence views during specific seasons and local agricultural uniqueness (Mattu Gulla brinjals).

Donation Info & Contact Details

Donations for temple maintenance, daily Nitya-Anna-Dana, and preservation of heritage can be channeled through the administrative desk.

- Management: Regulated via Sri Sode Vadiraja Matha, Udupi.
- General Contact Pointer: For current administrative inquiries, booking specific sevas, or tracking ritual timings, local temple assistance can generally be reached at +91-9916291962 (as listed under local Udupi regional temple directories). For institutional contributions, checking directly with the main office of the Sode Mutt in Car Street, Udupi, is highly recommended.

Undaru Sri Vishnumurthy Temple, Innanje, Udupi

Location:

Undaru (or Undaaru) Shri Vishnumoorthy Temple is located in the village of Undaru, Innanje (Innanje), Kapu (Kaup) taluk, Udupi district, Karnataka. It is about 12-15 km from Udupi city, around 7 km from Kapu (Kaup), and near Kunjaru.

How to get there:

By road: Easily reachable from Udupi (15 km) or Mangalore. Local buses, taxis, or private vehicles from Udupi or Kaup work well. Google Maps coordinates are available for navigation.

Nearest railway station: Udupi Railway Station (~15 km).

Nearest airport: Mangalore International Airport (~53 km).

It is a short detour from routes connecting Udupi to nearby areas like Pajaka or Kunjaru.

Speciality of this temple:

This is an ancient, lesser-known "hidden gem" temple in Tulunad with a serene atmosphere.

It features remarkable architectural elements like a musical stone pillar/column (that produces sounds when tapped), a temple bell carved from a single stone, and a monolithic stone chain.

The temple inspires deep devotion and is known for fulfilling wishes. It belongs to the Udupi Sri Sode Mutt and was renovated (e.g., in 2018) while preserving its antiquity. A key legend ties to the deity personally accepting naivedya (offering) from a pure-hearted boy, giving the temple its name ("Undaru" related to the Lord eating the offering).

History and legends:

The temple has a history of around 700 years and is one of the important spiritual centers in Tulunad. It is administered by Udupi Sri Sode Mutt. An inscription on the sanctum doorframe records a renovation in 1926 by Vishvendra Tirtha Sripadangalu of Sode Mutt (Krodhana Samvatsara). Further renovation occurred around 2018.

Legend:

Lord Vishnumurthy was pleased with a young boy's pure devotion and personally consumed the naivedya offering, leading to the temple's name and significance.

Architecture:

Traditional South Indian style with captivating stone carvings and marvels. Highlights include the musical granite pillar, single-stone bell, and monolithic stone chain. The structure has been renovated sensitively (e.g., copper roof), maintaining its historic charm. Illumination at twilight enhances its beauty.

Main deity and subdeities:

The presiding deity is Sri Vishnumurthy (a form of Lord Vishnu).

Other deities or sub-shrines (such as Ganapati or Devi) may be present, as is common in such temples.

Daily rituals and poojas and their charges:

Specific current charges are not widely published online (typical for many small traditional temples; they may be nominal or donation-based). Standard Vishnu temple rituals like daily abhishekam, archana, and aarthi are performed. Contact the temple for exact timings and rates. Generally open from early morning (around 6 AM) to evening.

Special poojas and their charges: Details on special poojas (e.g., kalasha abhishekam, navaka) are announced via the temple's Facebook page for events. Charges are typically modest; devotees can inquire directly. Annaprasadam (mass feeding) is organized on special occasions.

Festivals celebrated:

Key events include Ashadha Amavasya (Aati Amavase), marked with Navaka Pradhan, kalashabhishekam, and public annasantarpana (mass feeding). Other festivals likely follow the Vishnu/Sode Mutt calendar, such as Vaikunta Ekadashi (noted for special visits). Rathotsava and other annual celebrations occur.

Facilities available for devotees (accommodation, etc.):

Basic facilities like drinking water and pooja item shops are available. No detailed information on on-site accommodation (likely limited or none; common for smaller temples). Devotees usually stay in Udupi or nearby. The temple supports annadana on special days.

Do's and don'ts:

Follow standard temple etiquette—remove footwear, maintain silence and cleanliness, dress modestly, avoid non-vegetarian items or intoxicants inside the premises. Respect rituals and photography restrictions if any.

Nearby temples:

Brahmalingeshwara Temple (Uliargoli Kaup), Aryadi Shree Adi Janardhana Temple, temples in Kunjaru, Pajaka (Madhva birthplace area), and other Udupi Krishna-related sites.

Nearby hotels:

Plenty of options in Udupi (e.g., Hotel Summer Park mentioned in local guides) or Kaup. Check booking sites for current listings ranging from budget to mid-range.

Nearby tourist spots:

Kaup beach and lighthouse, Udupi Sri Krishna Temple, Malpe beach, Kunjaru, Pajaka, and other coastal spots in Udupi district.

Donation info with contact phone number: Donations support maintenance, rituals, and annadana. Contact the temple directly.

Phone: 0820-2559199 or +91 99807 96655.

Facebook page: Undaru Shri Vishnumoorthy Temple (for updates on events and contributions).

Any other info:

The temple offers a peaceful darshan experience, especially beautiful when illuminated. It is managed by Sode Mutt. Recent renovations have enhanced its appeal while preserving heritage. Visitors often combine it with nearby spiritual and beach tours. For the latest pooja schedules, events, or bookings, reach out via phone or Facebook, as information can change.

This temple is ideal for those seeking authentic, less crowded spiritual sites in coastal Karnataka. Verify details on-site or via direct contact, as some practical info (exact charges/timings) is best obtained locally.

- Mangalore International Airport: ~53 km
  (Karnataka Explore)

How to Get There

By Road: The temple is accessible by car or auto-rickshaw from Udupi or Kapu. Take the Udupi–Kapu route on the NH-66 (old NH-17) and then branch off toward Innanje village.

By Bus: KSRTC and private buses ply between Udupi and Kapu frequently. From Kapu, local autos or taxis can be hired.

By Train: The nearest railway station is Udupi (~15 km). Trains from Mangalore, Goa, and Bangalore connect here.

By Air: The nearest airport is Mangalore International Airport, about 53 km away.

Speciality of This Temple

The temple has a history of around 700 years and is considered one of the important spiritual centers of Tulunad. Although not widely known, it is regarded as a hidden gem by devoted pilgrims near the Kapu and Kunjaru areas. (Karnataka Explore)

Its calm atmosphere, traditional worship practices, and spiritual power are its distinguishing features. Devotees offer prayers here for the fulfillment of their intentions and wishes. (Karnataka Explore).

Notably, the temple is home to mesmerizing architectural marvels including a rare musical stone column and an ancient temple bell (YouTube) — a remarkable feature drawing architecture enthusiasts and devotees alike.

History and Legends

This temple came into being at the time of Sri Vadiraja (the great Dvaita philosopher-saint of Sode Mutt). The temple holds deep historical significance. According to legend, a pious and devoted bachelor once consecrated Naivedya (food offering) and miraculously made the Lord consume it visibly and completely. Because of this divine miracle, the place came to be known as "Undaru" — derived from "Unda Uru," meaning "the village where the Lord ate." (Sodematha)

Both Sri Madhva and Sri Vadiraja are said to have worshipped the Vishnumurthy deity here to their great spiritual satisfaction. Sri Vrindavanacharya later made arrangements for daily worship and festivals. (Sodematha)

An inscription was discovered on the door frame of the sanctum sanctorum, written in four lines in Kannada characters. It records that the temple was renovated by Vishvendra Tirtha Sripadangalu of Sode Mutt on 1926 (Krodhana Samvatsara, Suddha 9th, a Sunday) and reestablished with the ritual Brahmakalasha, corresponding to 21st February 1926 AD. The temple was again renovated in 2018.

Architecture

The temple follows the traditional Kerala-Karnataka (Tulu Nadu) style of temple architecture, with a sloping tiled roof, wooden pillars, and intricately carved interiors typical of Tulu Nadu shrines.

A standout architectural feature is its musical stone column — a rare pillar that produces audible tonal sounds when struck, and an ancient temple bell that adds to the antiquity of the structure. (YouTube)

Adjacent to the temple is the Sode Mutt branch, which includes a Pooja Mandira, corridor, rooms, kitchen, and a well. The wood work inside is described as unique and highly appealing. (Sodematha)

A sacred pond called "Vishnupushkarani" is located nearby, adding to the sacred geography of the site. (Sodematha)

A new Dwaja Stambha (flag post) was installed during the 2017–2018 renovation, reflecting the temple's ongoing restoration under the Sode Mutt.

Main Deity and Sub-Deities

Main Deity: Sri Vishnumurthy — a form of Lord Vishnu, worshipped in the Vaishnava Madhwa tradition.

Sub-Deities / Associated Shrines:

There is a sacred shrine of Nagadevaru (Serpent deity) and Bhutarajaru within the temple complex. A mysterious swing associated with Bhutarajaru is said to move on its own, with a visible touch mark on the wall — considered a divine wonder by devotees.

Daily Rituals and Poojas

The temple follows the Madhwa Vaishnava tradition of worship. Typical daily rituals include:

- Nithyotsava (Morning Pooja): Opens around 6:00 AM with Usha Pooja (morning prayers), Abhisheka (ritual bath of the deity), and Alankara (decoration).
- Madhyahna Pooja: Midday worship with Naivedya (food offering).
- Sandhya Pooja: Evening worship at sunset.
- Rathri Pooja: Night prayers before the temple closes.

The temple opens at 6:00 AM. (Justdial)

Special ritual: Bondabhisheka (abhisheka with tender coconut water) is performed on auspicious occasions like Ardrarka Parva (when Ardra nakshatra falls on a Sunday).
⚠️ Specific pooja charges are not publicly listed online. Devotees are advised to contact the temple directly or through Sode Mutt for seva charges.

Special Poojas and Their Charges

Special sevas typically available at Vishnu temples of this tradition include:

- Sahasranama Archane (recitation of 1000 names of Vishnu)
- Abhisheka Seva (ritual bathing of deity)
- Tulasi Archane
- Panchamruta Abhisheka
- Bondabhisheka (tender coconut abhisheka — performed on special occasions)

⚠️ Exact charges for each seva are managed by the temple administration and Sode Mutt. For accurate and updated rates, contact the temple priest or Sode Mutt directly.

Festivals Celebrated

- Walk through the main temple entrance
- Proceed to the Namaskara Mantapa area
- The musical stone columns with 88 small circular pillars will be visible there

Additional Features to See:

- Four bell-shaped columns carved in local black stone (Somanaatha stone) where reflection appears both upright and inverted simultaneously
- Two musical columns in the front porch area (three-tiered structure)

Important Contact Information

- Temple Contact: 099807 96655

- For any viewing questions: Contact temple administration before visiting

No Separate Viewing Required

- These are not public-access outdoor monuments like Garni Gorge in Armenia
- They are interior architectural features accessible only when you visit the temple as a devotee
- Simply entering the temple during opening hours allows you to view them

Best Tips

- Visit during morning hours (6-9 AM) for better lighting
- The temple was renovated in 2018 at ₹6 crore cost, so facilities are well-maintained
- No special entry fee mentioned - standard temple visit

The musical columns are part of the temple's sacred architecture, similar to Hampi's Vitthala Temple's musical pillars

About the Author

Dr. M. Thirumaleshwar is a Mechanical Engineer with specialization in Cryogenics. He obtained his B. E. In Mechanical Engineering from Karnataka Regional Engg College, (Now NITK), Surathkal, India and M.Sc. in Cryogenics from the University of Southampton, U.K., and Ph.D. from the Indian Institute of Science (IISc), Bangalore.

He has worked in prestigious organizations such as BARC, Bombay and Centre for Advanced Technology (CAT), Indore,as Head of Cryogenics Dept and contributed to the design of cryogenic systems, including the Thermovac chamber for ISRO, Bangalore.

He was also a visiting fellow at Superconducting Super Collider Project, at Texas, USA.

He has also served as Professor, Head of Department, and Principal in reputed engineering institutions.

Dr. Thirumaleshwar has authored a large number of FREE ebooks on Engineering subjects such as Thermodynamics, Heat Transfer, and Cryogenic Engineering, which are useful for students and teachers.

Driven by a deep interest in India's spiritual heritage, he has also authored many FREE ebooks on Temples, Saints, Gurus, and Vedic topics, with the aim of preserving and spreading this knowledge to future generations.

All his ebooks are available for free download at Archive.org.
